

GAME RULES

1: Unless otherwise specified, each clue will be considered complete once you've submitted a photo of the thing you're supposed to find. This is when the next clue will be sent to you.

2: Each clue is worth 1 point.

3: If you're really truly stumped, you can send a "PASS!" message to get your next clue.

4: As long as you've completed all 10 clues, the team that completes their hunt first gets an extra 5 points; 2nd place gets four points, 3rd gets 3 points, etc.

5: There are 10 optional EXTRA CREDIT tasks to complete along the way. Their point values correspond directly to their levels of difficulty (1-10).

6: Each team gets one 'Phone or Text a Friend' and three Googles. (This is an honor system. We know you'll do the right thing.)

7: Once you've completed your final clue, join the rest of the teams for a drink at:
Buffalo Billiards, 118 Chestnut Street.

EXTRA CREDIT

---

- 1 point: Take a picture of a Liberty Bell out in the wild (but not the Liberty Bell).
- 2 points: Take a picture of someone from your team with a Colonial-era impersonator (must be in colonial dress).
- 3 points: Take a picture of someone on your team using a boot scraper.
- 4 points: Take a video of a stranger singing 'Fly, Eagles, Fly.'
- 5 points: For the team that collects the most photos of Benjamin Franklin busts and sculptures out in the wild. (Did you know Philly has the most?)
- 6 points: Take a video (one minute max) of someone on your team telling a story about the Most Philly Thing he or she ever did - while standing at a Once Upon a Nation storytelling bench.
- 7 points: Take a picture of a Toynbee Tile.
- 8 points: Take a group selfie in front of one of Bresslergroup's first three office locations.
- 9 points: Collect an item with a Wawa logo. (Bring it to Buffalo Billiards to claim your points)
- 10 points: Find and photograph a Bresslergroup-designed product in the wild.

CLUE CARD

1

Find candy that looks like worms, sold inside the giant train shed just over yonder.

Send a picture!

CLUE CARD

2

Meet me at the _____! This 2,500 lb bronze statue found its nest in the Grand Court of Philadelphia's first department store.

Send a picture!

CLUE CARD

3

This oldest continuously operating tavern in the city is found down a tiny street, just as you'd expect.

Send a picture!

CLUE CARD

4

Crunchy hexapod invertebrates your thing? Find and snap a pic of these sustainable snacks for sale inside Philly's newest organic emporium.

Send a picture!

CLUE CARD

5

Putting pen to paper...The delegate from Virginia took up residence in this house in 1776; in 17 days, he drafted the document that gave birth to the United States. (Is that agile?)

Send a picture!

CLUE CARD

6

This government institution was the first raised under the newly signed Constitution, and takes charge of producing coins for our monetary system.

Send a picture!

CLUE CARD

7

Snap a photo of your group lounging in the letters of this favorite tourist photo op, right in front of the old commodities exchange on Independence Mall.

Send a picture!

CLUE CARD

8

This open-air pavilion is the site of the third U.S. executive mansion and one of the newer additions to Independence Mall.

Send a picture!

CLUE CARD

9

Huzzah! George Clymer, a signer of both the Declaration of Independence & the Constitution, poses triumphantly for this statue that pays tribute to the courageous individuals who signed the Declaration of Independence.

Send a picture!

CLUE CARD

10

Head in the clouds - This open-air museum celebrates the life and accomplishments of Pennsylvania's founder. Walk through the mini city laid out in marble on the ground, and take a picture of where you think our office is located on the plans.

Send a picture!