

GAME RULES

1: Unless otherwise specified, each clue will be considered complete once you've submitted a photo of the thing you're supposed to find. This is when the next clue will be sent to you.

2: Each clue is worth 1 point.

3: If you're really truly stumped, you can Teams a "PASS!" message to get your next clue.

4: As long as you've completed all 10 clues, the team that completes their hunt first gets an extra 5 points; 2nd place gets four points, 3rd gets 3 points, etc.

5: There are 10 optional EXTRA CREDIT tasks to complete along the way. Their point values correspond directly to their levels of difficulty (1-10).

6: Each team gets one 'Phone or Text a Friend' and three Googles. (This is an honor system. We know you'll do the right thing.)

7: Once you've completed your final clue, join the rest of the teams for a drink at:
Buffalo Billiards, 118 Chestnut Street.

EXTRA CREDIT

- 1 point: Take a picture of a Liberty Bell out in the wild (but not the Liberty Bell).
- 2 points: Take a picture of someone from your team with a Colonial-era impersonator (must be in Colonial-era dress).
- 3 points: Take a picture of someone on your team using a boot scraper.
- 4 points: Take a video of a stranger singing 'Fly, Eagles, Fly.'
- 5 points: For the team that collects the most photos of Benjamin Franklin busts and sculptures out in the wild. (Did you know Philly has the most?)
- 6 points: Take a video (one minute max) of someone on your team telling a story about the Most Philly Thing he or she ever did - while standing at a Once Upon a Nation storytelling bench.
- 7 points: Take a picture of a Toynbee Tile.
- 8 points: Take a group selfie in front of one of Bresslergroup's first three office locations.
- 9 points: Collect an item with a Wawa logo. (Bring it to Buffalo Billiards to claim your points!)
- 10 points: Find and photograph a Bresslergroup-designed product in the wild.

CLUE CARD

1

Brains! Delicious brains! Find some chocolate brains for sale inside the giant train shed just over yonder.

Send a picture!

CLUE CARD

2

This gate to food heaven, created using tiles from Philadelphia's sister city in the Eastern hemisphere, was recently renovated in 2008.

Send a picture!

CLUE CARD

3

This market is known for its many far east delights, with endless options of noodles, watermelon gummies and other Asian candy, soy drinks and most importantly - full bags of the cookies that claim to tell your future.

Send a picture!

CLUE CARD

4

Alert! Alert! This mural at a nearby fire station depicts a dragon saluting its neighborhood.

Send a picture!

CLUE CARD

5

In one of the five original squares laid out in William Penn's city grid, this bald eagle remains grounded alongside Smarty Jones, Afleet Alex & other furry friends.

Send a picture!

CLUE CARD

6

Innovation is electrifying! So is this sculpture memorializing a famous experiment that took place during an electrical storm.

Send a picture!

CLUE CARD

7

“A penny saved is a penny earned,” said this famous Philadelphian. Find his place of rest, which is also home to many a penny thrown by locals and tourists alike.

Send a picture!

CLUE CARD

8

Somewhere in this Old City you'll find the story of woodworking told in pictures on a wall.

Send a picture!

CLUE CARD

9

Allez allez to a small alley off of the nation's oldest residential street. Find the red well that will indicate you've found the right court.

Send a picture!

CLUE CARD

10

Head in the clouds - This open-air museum celebrates the life and accomplishments of Pennsylvania's founder. Walk through the mini city laid out in marble on the ground, and take a picture of where you think our office is located on the plans.

Send a picture!